Description:

It is a very nice house in Torrelles de Foix (at 12 minutes drive from Vilafranca del Penedès).

It is a top floor of a two story house in the historical of Torrelles de Foix , the property is a duplex, the advantages are that there is only one neighbour downstairs on the 1st Floor and it has wonderful views onto a forest opposite the dining room's window. It is a 3 bedroom duplex, with kitchen , 1 bathroom and 1 terrasse, ready to live in 110 square meters and there is another floor above included on the property of 65 sq meters where it gives an extra room , for living or working , this area on the roof needs to be remodelled although the access is there in place , and it's a lovely and modern round stairway .

The highlighting points is that it has the Sun all day long, it is on the Historical Center of the village Torrelles de Foix and it has spectacular natural views from the living area and also from the bedrooms.
